

MUNYON'S BEST DEEDS

Stories That Well-Known People Like to Recall.

The Learned Professor a True Philanthropist—His Humane Methods Praised Everywhere.

Charles J. Muth, of No. 49 South Division street, Buffalo, says: "For the past twenty years," said he, "I have suffered terribly from dyspepsia. I could not eat so early as I used to, and at times was unable to retain water on my stomach. When I ate, the food would not go into my stomach, but would burn and cause me intense agony. Usually within four to six hours after eating I vomited my food, when the pain in my side would stop until hunger compelled me to eat again. I was troubled with indigestion, was very nervous and my whole system was so run down that I could not describe how I felt. I had to go to doctors, and tried every medicine I heard of, and spending hundreds of dollars without receiving any benefit. Just one month ago I began using Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure. I did not have much faith in it, but my friends who had been cured with his remedies urged me to try it. The first few doses in fact made me so much that I continued taking it, and am now thoroughly cured. I have a good appetite, can eat and digest any kind of food, and am in excellent health. My friends are greatly surprised at the change in me, and I believe I would ever be a well man again. I owe it all to Munyon's Remedies."

Munyon's Remedies are a complete cure for all diseases, put up a cure for every disease. No matter what the disease is or how many doctors have failed to cure you, ask your druggist for a 25-cent trial of one of Munyon's cures, and you will be benefited. Your money will be refunded.

With Munyon's Remedies every one can doctor themselves.

Sold by all druggists.

MR. BORLAND TALKS.

An Array of Reasons for His Withdrawal.

For several days past it has been known that Hon. Thos. R. Borland would withdraw his notice of contest for Mr. Tyler's seat in Congress and the attorneys for the Congressman elect have been resting upon their oars, awaiting the formal withdrawal of Mr. Borland, which was made public at a late hour Tuesday night.

Yesterday a VIRGINIAN man called on Mr. Borland and asked for a statement of the reasons for retiring.

Mr. Borland said: "For want of funds I have been obliged to abandon this contest, for I would have to take depositions in eleven counties, in each of which I would have to employ a lawyer, a notary and a stenographer, and the inspection of 3,800 rejected ballots is both a tedious and expensive proceeding. In addition we allege that there were several thousand fraudulent ballots to prove which we would be compelled to summon the voters of those ballots, thus entailing additional expense. It was, therefore, because of no misgiving of the result that I abandoned the contest. Then there was a professional reason, for any further proceeding would have caused me to neglect my practice which would have suffered. Having had to pay campaign expenses personally I did not feel like spending an additional $10,000 to establish my claim even for the honor of serving my country."

It is estimated that Mr. Borland's campaign expenses were not less than $3,000.

AMUSEMENTS.

ELKS' BENEFIT.—On the 20th instant Fanny Rice and her clever company will present her latest success, "Three Pairs of Shoes," at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Elks. This play, which the critics have pronounced a female "Rip Van Winkle," is said to give clever Fanny Rice the best opportunity to display her wonderful versatility that she has ever had, for, aside from providing her a most congenial role in the character of the honest, true hearted but impetuous Nancy, it allows her the opportunity to introduce with consistency numerous stinging and acting numbers, including a German song, with yodel, a French song, a comic, grotesque song and many other good things.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL.—It is probable that a "Poor Relation," which will be seen here next Thursday, the 14th, is among the very best comedies we shall see in this city this season. Mr. Russell has a great future before him. He stands almost alone among the actors of his generation who have taken comedy for their field, as a master of quiet, natural methods and artistic presentation.

The sale of seats will begin next Monday morning. Prices: First floor, $1 and $1.50; balcony, 50c. and $1; gallery, 25c.

MARIE WAINWRIGHT.—Miss Marie Wainwright's engagement for two nights at the Academy on Thursday and Friday, February 7 and 8, will introduce that charming actress in two plays, in neither of which has she been previously seen here. On Thursday night she will present her latest and greatest success, the brilliant society drama, "Daughters of Eve," and on Friday Tom Taylor's famous comedy drama, "An Unequal Match." The New York Herald says:

"Miss Marie Wainwright appeared last night at the Harlem Opera House in Messrs. Lancaster and Magnus' play, 'Daughters of Eve.' There was a large audience, and the piece achieved a pronounced success. Miss Wainwright in the dual characters of Rose Wycherly and Rhoda Dainty acted with much feeling and intensity, and differentiated the characters with judgment and discretion. She was particularly strong in the final scene. Miss Wainwright was adequately supported."

ATLANTIC CITY.

The W. C. T. U. will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Chessier, Pool street, promptly at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Emma Hopkins, a resident of this ward, who has been very sick at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, in Baltimore, for some time, will possibly be able to return home in a month, so her physicians say.

The funeral of the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson took place from their residence, corner of North street and Colley avenue, yesterday, and was conducted by Rev. T. A. Hall. Interment was in Elmwood. Sympathy for the distressed family is very great, it being the only child.

The stained glass and the beautiful figured windows will be a feature of special attractiveness in Leikie Memorial Church.

Hough Rice wanted.

Five thousand bushels highest market price. H. E. Owen, 275, 277, 279 Water street.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler county, W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by all druggists.

Several cars on track; must be sold; also some on track here. H. E. Owen, 275 Water street.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVERS

that the road had been turned over to the receivers. They were instructed to proceed with the operations as heretofore, and while it is not known what will be done, the opinion prevails among the officials in this city that no great changes will be made in the operating force.

As this city is the center of the system and the location of the general offices and shops of the road, it is largely dependent upon the Norfolk and Western, and there was much interest in the receivership manifested by the people here. The result is by no means a surprise and there is a general disposition to accept it cheerfully. It is not believed that any Roanoke interest will be seriously affected and the result will ultimately be beneficial, as it was well known that the road would have to go through the usual process of reorganization.

ADDITIONAL FACTS.

The Company's Business Greatly Depressed.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE VIRGINIAN.

RICHMOND, Va., February 6.—Appointment was upon the application of the Fidelity Trust and Safe Deposit Company, of Philadelphia, and in answer a statement is filed by the officers of the company admitting all the facts and joining in the petition for the receiver. It is stated in answer that the company's business was greatly depressed by the panic and that it had to borrow large sums of money to make necessary repairs.

That the company now has a floating debt of more than $1,000,000, represented by bills payable of the railroad company and the Roanoke Machine Works. The company also owes its employees about $350,000. The answer then goes on to say that as soon as the company should default in its obligations, creditors would become alarmed and numerous suits would be brought. To protect the interests of all, therefore, it joined in the prayer for a receiver.

BRAMBLETON.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Peter's P. E. Church will have an oyster supper for the benefit of the rectory to-night at Mr. D. C. Worthington's, Clay avenue.

Mr. R. Pope and family have left their residence, on Hughes street, and made their home at No. 597 East Brambleton avenue.

Mr. Starke Barclay has bought out Mr. Dozier's stock of goods and store fixtures at the corner of Park and Claiborne avenues.

Interesting meetings are going on this week at Park Avenue Baptist Church, Trinity Methodist and McKendree.

Mrs. Wooston, who had a fall down stairs and broke her arm at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Forbes, with whom she is living on Reservoir avenue, is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Sale of St. James Hotel.

The VIRGINIAN some time ago stated that the St. James Hotel had been sold to the Citizens' Bank for $55,000. The deed was recorded yesterday. This hotel property was sold ten years ago for $25,000, which is an advance in this Main street property of $30,000 in the last decade.

A Terrible Visitant.

Pain is always a terrible visitant, and often dominates itself with one for life. This affliction is prevalent here, in case of rheumatism, by a timely resort to Hough's Stomach Bitters, which checks the encroachments of this obnoxious and dangerous enemy at the outset. The term "dangerous" is used advisedly, for rheumatism is always liable to attack the vital organs and terminate life. No testimony is more convincing and more reliable than that of physicians who testify to the excellent effect of the bitters in this disease. Persons incur a waiting in rainy or snowy weather, and who are exposed to draughts, should use the bitters as a preventive of all effects. Scalds, dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble, nervousness, and debility are also among the ailments to which this popular medicine is a relief. For the ailments, a witness an affliction of the age it is highly beneficial.

REV. Daniel F. Warren, D. D., Rector Holy Trinity Church, Jersey City Heights, says:

"Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills

are unquestionably good. They are, in my opinion, all that I need. I have tried them and found them to be what I needed. I believe they will cure my dyspepsia, and that is saying much for any medicine. I am glad, therefore, to give my testimony."
